New Officers Take Posts at East Brunswick Rescue

2005 sees mix of new and long-time members take leadership roles

EAST BRUNSWICK, N.J. — Thirteen members of the East Brunswick Rescue Squad take office this month, mixing new blood with long-time experience at the 53-year-old organization.

Leading the squad as captain for the second consecutive year is Lisa Grande, an 18-year member. Second in command as assistant captain is Fred Beisser, who joined the squad in 2001.

Tom Paccione, a 15-year member, serves as president this year, assisted by Tony Bersani, a four-year member, as vice president.

Mary Kerslake, who has volunteered at East Brunswick Rescue Squad for 31 years, takes on the role of first lieutenant.

About the East Brunswick Rescue Squad

The East Brunswick Rescue Squad is incorporated as a 501(c) non-profit, volunteer-run organization funded by charitable contributions. Its national- and state-certified EMTs provide pre-hospital trauma and medical life support to East Brunswick 24 hours a day, seven days a week with backing from strategic partnerships. Founded in 1952, the squad's 100-plus riding members contributed nearly 20,000 hours of volunteer time and answered more than 2,100 calls in 2004. The East Brunswick Rescue Squad is a member of the New Jersey State First Aid Council's 14th District. The squad maintains a website at www.ebrs.org.
